BRICKIE TIP #13: The Best Thank You Letter Ever Written in the History of the World

Consider using the stationary on the next page to write an epic gratitude letter that highlights the intention, cost, and value of a gift you have received. See Brickie Tip #12 for details.

When you are finished with your masterpiece, you can:

- CUT IT OUT AND SEND IT VIA THE OLD-FASHIONED POSTAL SERVICE
- HAND DELIVER IT (MAYBE EVEN PLACE IT SOMEWHERE THEY WILL FIND IT - A DELIGHTFUL SURPRISE!)
- TAKE A PIC AND TEXT/EMAIL IT TO THEM

If you think they would appreciate it, you could even call them up or visit them and read your letter aloud.

Warning: This activity could cause a salty discharge from your eyes and/or your recipient's!

GRATITUDE IN ACTION: Call, text, or email this person to send them your appreciation, and check the box when the mission is completed!
